

RH-99: two-gap differential control is local, conservative, and not yet a tube

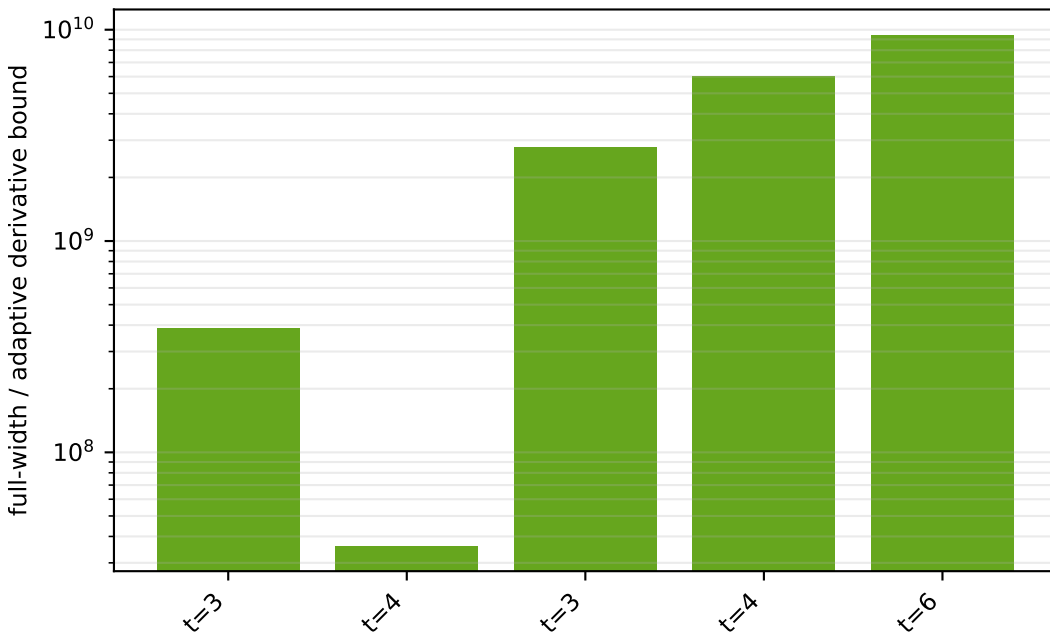

(a) The theorem closes but is extremely conservative

(b) Five output Ritz gaps are not certifiably positive

(c) Quotienting improves all five formal envelopes

(d) No actual quotient lies inside the linearized tube

