

Deterministic Hardy tails and the honest sparse-to-full Gaussian route

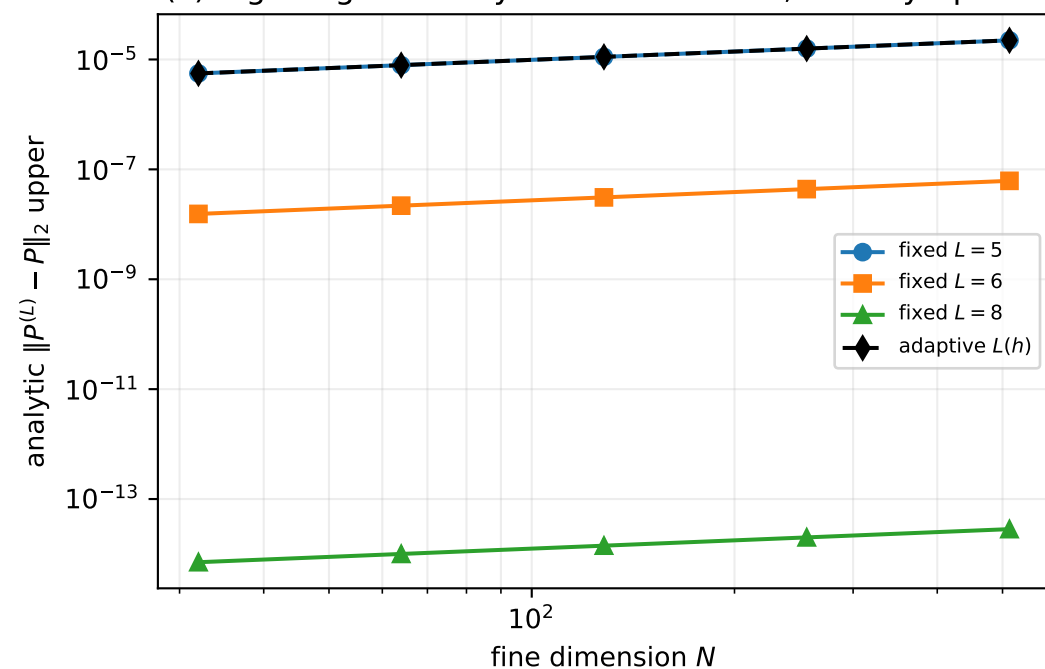

(a) Deterministic all-column sums certify the full energy

(b) One contracting block replaces fitted time-64 decay

(c) Eight sigma is tiny on stored scales, not asymptotic

(d) Production cutoff constants through $N = 40960$

