

Residue-deflated directional resolvents and the quarter-power bridge

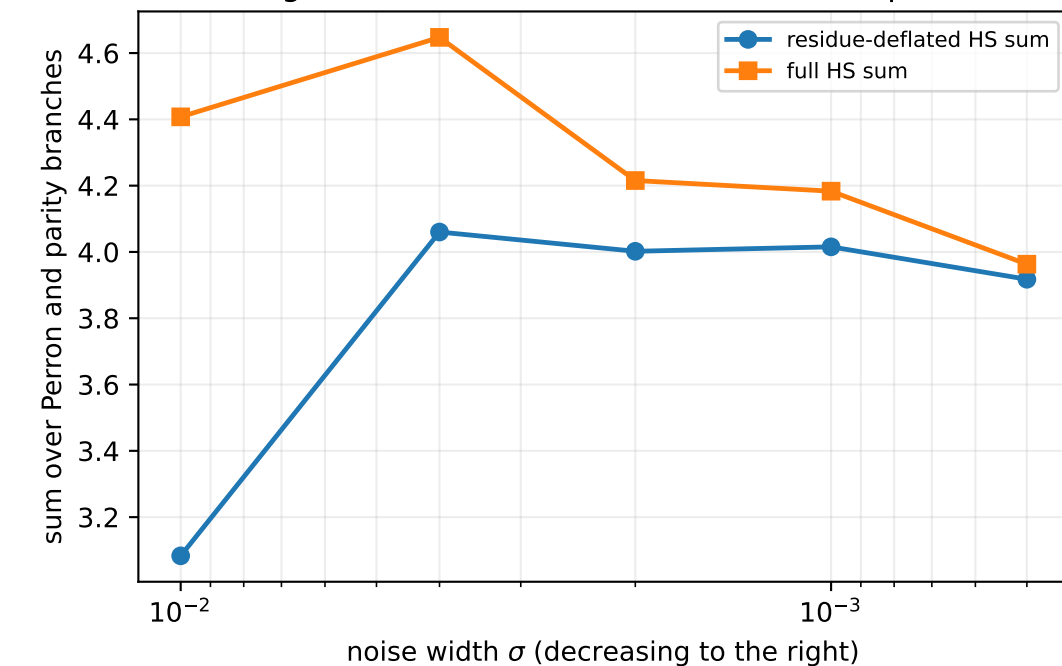

(a) Exact Haar Frobenius and operator candidates

(b) The outgoing channel selects the quarter power

(c) Eight-node Hilbert--Schmidt directional plateau

(d) Both floating routes remain below the critical slope

